

Driving Path to a Sustainable Future

South Asia Regional Youth Workshop on “Green Skills and Youth Empowerment: An Initiative for a Better Future” was held in Kathmandu, Nepal from May 22-24, 2025 organized by Children Women in Social Service and Human Rights (CWISH) in coordination with Terres des Hommes (tdh) Germany. A total of 26 energetic youth from South Asia participated in the event.

The workshop aimed to explore the opportunities of green skills empowering the next generation for a sustainable future and strengthen advocacy on environmental policy coherence at the regional and international level to build understanding on advocacy for sustainable future, enhance youth engagement in green skills for sustainable future and encourage youth participation for collective action for sustainable future.

A key outcome of the workshop was the release of a youth-led manifesto that emphasizes the empowerment of youth in green initiatives in ensuring a healthy environment for a sustainable future. The event fostered cross-border collaboration, strengthened regional networks and emphasized the need for inclusive youth-centered policies. The event concluded with a shared commitment to continue working for a greener and more sustainable future.
